Navigator's Report

March...

...it comes in like a Lion and goes out like a Lamb.

Lent is with us now as the cold lingers in the mornings and milder afternoons promise Spring. Hopefully, our observances of the season prepare us better for the Paschal joy to come next month. As persecution of Catholics persists in many forms and countries, a special intention for our prayer this Lenten month should be the protection of the Faith. In other countries we hear more reports of attacks and church desecrations. In the USA, new laws and court decisions threaten our religious freedom. Defend us O Lord from the Roaring Lion!

The March feasts of St. Patrick and St. Joseph stand as pillars of many an example for us to recall and emulate their fortitude and ask their intercession in the needs of our lives and the protection of the Church.

It is the way of this temporal world that things strengthen and grow or wither and die. So, look to continue to recruit good men to the Order and the 4th Section lest it be said of us that we were too tired or disinterested to pass the torch of Catholic Knighthood to coming generations.
